

NANCY'S CASE NOTES:

Case: The Christmas Crook

Mystery: Location of the missing will for millionaire Everette Brandwaithe

Location: Safe deposit box at the bank.

Crook: Philip Anderson, the bank manager

Clues: While the butler admitted that there were three safes in the house and two safe deposit boxes owned by Mr. Brandwaithe, Marcus Brandwaithe clearly said he had seen inside the safes – he never said anything about seeing the safe deposit boxes. Philip Anderson, the bank manager, told Carson Drew there were no wills in either of the safe deposit boxes – yet bank employees are not allowed into the safe deposit boxes, so that is knowledge he should not have! He would have a vested interest in the money remaining in his bank for as long as possible, as it would earn interest for the bank – were the money to be disbursed to beneficiaries, his bank would lose a sizeable chunk of its assets!

How did you do?

5+ minutes--Go get yourself a copy of The Nancy Drew Sleuth Book and start studying!

3 to 4 minutes--You wouldn't catch too many crooks like this!

2 minutes--You'd definitely make a good detective sidekick!

Less than 2 minutes--Your powers of recognition and memory would make Nancy proud!